

Perry, Barnabas + Jane

Barnabas and Jane's son Joseph Perry was AC Perry's father's father.

It is clear that Barnabas's wife's forename was Jane, but her maiden name and the date and place of her birth are subject to varying degrees of uncertainty.

There is a record of marriage of Barnabas Perry of Stroud Water, Gloucestershire, with a Jane Flower of Trowbridge, Wiltshire, in 1799.

And there is a record of baptism of a Jane Flower at Devizes, Wiltshire, in 1773 (parents Alexander and Mary).

However Barnabas's wife's birthplace is shown as Shepton Mallett, Somersetshire, in the 1851 Census, and the year of her birth is variously implied to be 1781 (by the 1841 Census), 1771 (by the 1851 Census), and 1779 (by her Death Certificate). It is plausible that the above Flower people were Barnabas Perry's wife and in-laws, but in the light of the evidence we have at the moment that interpretation is questionable.